

Science Core Principles

Science at Tranmere Park is:

- Active, engaging and challenging
- Fun, interactive and inspirational
- Practical, well-resourced and recorded in a variety of ways
- A fine balance of knowledge-based and investigative approaches
- Responsive to the children's needs and interests
- Exploratory and deepens children's understanding
- Taught by teachers who are confident with the objectives and supported by the subject leader