

Vocabulary and pictures for children:

Key questions for children to discuss with adults:

- Can you name some traditional and modern stories?
- Stories often have good characters (heroes) and bad characters (villains).
- Can you name some heroes and villains from traditional tales?
- Can you name some heroes and villains from modern stories?
- Can you name some settings for stories from traditional tales?
- Can you name some settings for modern stories?
- Can you name jobs of people who help us? (Both emergency services and everyday services.)
- Can you draw pictures in order of the main events of a traditional tale?
- Can you design a uniform for someone who helps us?
- Can you design a costume for a friend for a character you have created?

Key vocabulary – Can you help your child to be able to explain what these words mean?

- | | |
|-------------|---------------|
| • Hero | • Uniform |
| • Villain | • Traditional |
| • Storyline | • Modern |
| • Setting | • Comedy |
| • Character | • Emergency |
| • Costume | • Acting |
| • Props | • Job |
| • Book | • Occupation |
| • Movie | |
| • Film | |